BOND IMPORTED SALT FISH FARE

British Sch. Edith F. S. Brings First
Cargo Since Question of "Boned"
Fish Came Up—"Temporarily Free of Duty", The Ruling.

The first cargo of imported salt fish, ningham and Thompson company.

to reach this port since the question arose if cargoes of this kind are to be considered "boned" and therefore liable to a duty of three-quarters of a cent per pound, arrived here this morning in the British sch. Edith F. S. which brings 100,000 pounds of salt cod and 150,000 pounds of salt cusk from Yarmouth, N. S. for the Cun-

The discharge of the cargo will not be held up until the question is decided by the Treasury Department at Washington but will be admitted "temporarily free of duty." And the consignees have accordingly given a bond double the amount of duty that will be levied, should the officials at Washington rule that the fish is "boned" and therefore dutiable.

CAUGHT FARE OFF NANTUCKET

Steamer Philomena at Boston Today—Has Mackerel and Pollock Mixed.

Sch. Corsair, Capt. George G. Hamor, arrived at the Boston fish pier from the Cape Shore yesterday afternoon, hailing for 20,000 fresh mixed mackerel. The only other fresh mackerel fare was that of steamer Philomena, which took 8000 mixed fish off Nantucket yesterday and 5000 pollock besides.

Yesterday afternoon sch. Constellation brought down her salt mackerel fare of 300 barrels from Boston, which sold to the W. H. Jordan & Company, her owners.

Newport Arrivals.

At Newport today are the following fresh mackerel fares:
Aquadneck, 600 fresh mackerel.
Dart, 700 fresh mackerel.
Freedom, 1500 fresh mackerel.
Lilly Foster, 500 fresh mackerel.
Wood and Mack, 500 fresh mackerel.
R. B., 400 fresh mackerel.
Sylvester, 700 fresh mackerel.
On Time, 1000 fresh mackerel.
Blanche F. Irving, 1100 fresh mackerel.
Azorian, 1300 fresh mackerel.
Joker, 600 fresh mackerel.
Frank Frances, 400 fresh mackerel.
Yesterday the Freedom was reported with 1300 fish, Aquidneck, 500 and Dart, 700 fresh mackerel.

A dispatch from Newport to the Times says the netters are landing about 150 barrels daily.

More Good Cape Shore Stocks.

Following are some more good stocks made by the Cape Shore seiners:

Sch. Veda McKown, Capt. Lewis Carritt, of the Davis Brothers' fleet, stocked $2812 and the crew shared $55.25.

Sch. Corona, Capt. David Keating, stocked $3200 and the crew shared $53.20. The Corona is one of the Cunningham & Thompson Company's fleet.

Sch. Constellation, Capt. Charles Maguire, stocked $4054.09, and the crew shared $79.36.

Sch. Mary E. Harty, Capt. Ambrose Fleet, stocked $3685.56, and the crew shared $76.05. Both of these vessels are of the William H. Jordan & Company's fleet.

Light Landings at Halifax.

Only 5000 mackerel arrived Tuesday at Halifax for the National Fish company, they being brought in from Prospect on the little schooner James L. The smallness of the arrivals is attributed to the thick weather prevailing during the past two days.

WRECKED CREW BOUND HOME

Capt. Nicholas Cole and 12 of the crew of sch. Aloha of this port, which was burned at sea, June 5, off Anticosti, arrive at Quebec on steamer Savoy yesterday. The four other members of the crew rowed to Gaspé Basin in their dories.
